MidAtlantic AIDS Education and Training Center*

Program Description

This year's event is for health care professionals throughout West Virginia with an interest in HIV treatment or prevention. The priority focus will be on implementing changes in practice to positively impact our state and surrounding areas.

Objectives

At the end of this program, participants should be able to:

- Discuss the latest national and state-level HIV statistics and explore their potential impact on the population.
- Describe the current HIV guidelines, ongoing research, and literature that can inform and shape clinical practice.
- Identify effective strategies and interventions designed to reduce the transmission of HIV and consider the specific challenges faced when implementing HIV prevention measures in rural communities.
- Describe practical approaches to enhance the treatment of individuals with HIV and those at risk, considering how to improve patient care capacity based on updated guidelines and key clinical factors.
